

Code of Behaviour

Principles

As an adult working in Small Charity Support – whether as a member of staff or a volunteer – you have a responsibility to ensure that everyone attending Small Charity Support's activities, particularly children, young people and vulnerable adults, are protected from harm. It is the responsibility of each adult working in Small Charity Support to ensure that:

- ✓ their behaviour is appropriate at all times;
- ✓ they observe the rules established for the safety and security of children, young people and vulnerable adults;
- ✓ they follow the procedures following suspicion, disclosure or allegation of child abuse;
- ✓ they recognise the position of trust in which they have been placed; and
- ✓ in every respect, the relationships they form with the children, young people and vulnerable adults in their care are appropriate

All persons who wish to work in Small Charity Support, must accept and understand this policy. They must also agree to put Small Charity Support's policies on safeguarding children and vulnerable adults into practice.

Meeting your responsibilities

- ✓ the welfare of the children and/or young people and/or vulnerable adults for whom you have a duty of care is safeguarded;
